Kat's Corner

Hey guys, good morning. This friends is issue #70. Seven O. Crazy isn't it? Thank you all for the continuous support and words of encouragement. It makes me so happy!

So, here we are in August. Usually, things get back to normal routines when school starts. 'Usually' would be the key word here. We all know things are changing at a pretty rapid pace. What I have decided to do is to provide links to area websites, so you can get information directly, as speculation always has its drawbacks. I encourage you to visit the city websites and go look to see what is on the agenda's for city council meetings. Visit the schools websites for updated school information.

Dr. N goes live on the Facebook page on a pretty regular basis, so bookmark that by liking the page. I can't even begin to imagine the hoops that the staff of all of the Independent School Districts have had to jump through to prepare for THIS year. I hope you will keep Dr. N, the school board and everyone, everyone that is part of our school district in your prayers. I don't yet know the Superintendent for but please keep all of them in your prayers as well.

Alright, so this month's recipe did not come from my kitchen, as I'm not a fan of desserts. However, it did come from Paula Deen and it looks really good. If it was me, I'd take instant banana pudding and vanilla wafers and call it banana pudding. Yes, you can groan!

I got the greatest text the other day thanking me for Round Town News and saying that he had picked up a copy and that it brought some normalcy to him in these weird days. Thank you Charlie, you made my day.

Okay, confirmed. RaceTrac is coming to town. Wood and Time has moved to Candy Street in and in its place at the Shell Station is, you ready? Taco Shell. Made you smile didn't it?

I picked up some Celestial Seasonings tea bags the other day and found this:

"All Passion Becomes Strength When It Has An Outlet."

Breathe deeply and find your happy place. We are a strong community and we will get through this together. Be kind to yourselves and each other. Big hugs to all of you.

What???

- ❖ A man walks into a bar with a roll of tarmac under his arm and says: "Pint please, and one for the road."
- ❖ If you're still looking for that one person who will change your life, take a look in the mirror.
- ❖ My grandfather tried to warn them about the Titanic. He screamed and shouted about the iceberg and how the ship was going to sink, but all they did was throw him out of the theater.
- ❖ Confucius say, man who runs behind car will get exhausted, but man who runs in front of car will get tired.
- ❖ What did one eye say to the other eye? Between you and me something smells.
- ❖ So apparently RSVP'ing back to a wedding invite 'maybe next time' isn't the correct response.
- ❖ Saying "super-size it" at the drive-thru doesn't work when it's a pharmacy.
- ❖ I assert dominance over millennials by responding to their texts with phone calls.
- ❖ Nobody ever asks how Coca-Cola is doing. It's always, "Is Pepsi okay?"
- ❖ When I first started dating my wife she asked me what some of my dreams were. I told her one was about a T-Rex who didn't get a job because he couldn't tie a tie. She meant goals.
- ❖ I never forget my son's first words... "Where the heck have you been for 16 years?"
- ❖ Teacher: "What is the future tense of the statement: 'I had killed a thief?'" Student: "You will go to jail."
