ISSUE NO. 70

Kat's Corner

Hey guys, good morning. This friends is issue #70. Seven O. Crazy isn't it? Thank you all for the continuous support and words of encouragement. It makes me so happy!

So, here we are in August. Usually, things get back to normal routines when school starts. 'Usually' would be the key word here. We all know things are changing at a pretty rapid pace. What I have decided to do is to provide links to area websites, so you can get information directly, as speculation always has its drawbacks. I encourage you to visit the city websites and go look to see what is on the agenda's for city council meetings. Visit the schools websites for updated school information. Dr. N goes live on the School District Facebook page on a pretty regular basis, so bookmark that by liking the page. I can't even begin to imagine the hoops that the staff of all the School Districts have had to jump through to prepare for THIS year. I hope you will keep Dr. N, the school board and everyone, everyone that is part of our school district in your prayers. I don't yet know the Superintendent for this School District, but please keep all of them in your prayers as well.

Alright, so this month's recipe did not come from my kitchen, as I'm not a fan of desserts. However, it did come from Paula Deen and it looks really good. If it was me, I'd take instant banana pudding and vanilla wafers and call it banana pudding. Yes, you can groan!

I got the greatest text the other day thanking me for Round Town News and saying that he had picked up a copy and that it brought some normalcy to him in these weird days. Thank you Charlie, you made my day.

Okay, confirmed. Racetrac is coming to town. Wood and Time has moved to Candy Street and in its place at the Shell Station is, you ready? Taco Shell. Made you smile didn't it?

I picked up some Celestial Seasonings tea bags the other day and found this:

All Passion Becomes Strength When It Has An Outlet.

Breathe deeply and find your happy place. We are a strong community and we will get through this together. Be kind to yourselves and each other. Big hugs to all of you.

What???

What did one eye say to the other eye?
Between you and me something smells.

Nobody ever asks how Coca-Cola is doing.
It's always, "Is Pepsi okay?"

A man walks into a bar with a roll of tarmac
under his arm and says:
"Pint please, and one for the road."

I'll never forget my son's first words...
"Where the heck have you been for 16 years?"
